

Message from the CEO - Industry groups press for FBT relief

After months of suffering from the effects of the pandemic, it has been good to see an increase in car park usage and enforcement around the country. It probably comes as no surprise that people are not returning to public transport in the numbers they once did, and as a result are driving and parking. This has been most evident in Perth, where it's been reported that car parks, especially in and near the CBD, are at or near capacity... Read more...
